Great! Because you are familiar with the "situation of the ground" and the local sensibilities - did you want to reach out to the repository, have Lena do it - or is this something you'd like us to assist you with for the initial contact?

Thanks,

Paul

Hi Paul,

Yes, I've located this library and it looks like the best choice for a local info repository. Thanks for looking into it.

Helen & Trish:

Understanding that you folks are very busy, I thought I'd take a virtual drive around Dimock and see if I could at least make a suggestion for a repository.

I came up with the Main Library in Montrose, PA. <http://susqcolibrary.org/> Phone 570-278-1881.

It is 6.6 miles away from Dimock and appears to have reasonable hours of operaton. It is located in Montrose, PA which (as I'm sure you know) is the county seat of Susquehanna County.

You're on the ground - so you have much better visibility as to what will actually work best - but I thourght it couldn't hurt to try and help out.

Thanks,

Paul
